

Collection Information Services | RadarOne

In order to recover debt fast, you need a tool that provides the most accurate contact and credit information about the debtor, in a format that is easy to use and review. Kroll Factual Data's RadarOne service helps increase collection recoveries by merging up-to-date debtor information from multiple sources into one report.

At Kroll Factual Data, we specialize in combining innovative services with cutting-edge technology and industry-leading customer service to help businesses make prompt, accurate decisions.

RadarOne provides valuable, up-to-date debtor information quickly and efficiently. The result is an increased ability to collect on delinquent accounts.

How RadarOne Works

Simply click to order skip locator information and merged credit data on the debtor. Data is returned to you in seconds with up-to-date locate information, along with highlighted details needed to analyze the collection potential on the individual, along with indicators of the debtor's ability to pay.

The Kroll Factual Data Advantage

With over 20 years in the merged data technology industry, we have developed proprietary partnerships with leading public domain database providers. This allows us to access multiple databases simultaneously – making Kroll Factual Data the authority in identification and authentication services.

Why RadarOne?

Accurate Data

Data is merged from multiple skip locate sources, including repository data, resulting in precise information for locating an individual.

One-Stop Shop

Up-to-date contact information, public records and credit history all in one easy-to-read report.

Payment Opportunities Identified

Highlighted information on debtor's ability to pay includes isolating key trade lines, available credit information and new sources of potential credit.

Focus on Collectible Accounts

The easy-to-use format equips your staff to quickly identify factors leading to a higher percentage of collectible accounts.

Unlimited Access to Reports

Easy retrieval of previously accessed data allows for efficient data mining by multiple personnel.

Easy Transition Between Staff Members

Comment fields allow for notes to be made and shared about the progress of the account recovery.

Customizable Formats

Data can be customized to appear in any order, allowing for efficient data access.

Consolidated Billing

Retrieve all information needed from one source, saving time and money through consolidated vendor relationships and invoices.

Contact Us:

800-929-3400

sales@krollfactualdata.com

www.krollfactualdata.com